PLANO, Texas (April 16, 2007) – PGA Tour star Chad Campbell and the world's leading commercial cleaning franchise company, Jani-King International, have formed a new partnership, according to Links Sports, Campbell's management firm. Campbell will appear in Jani-King advertisements and on the company's website. The Jani-King logo will also be present on Campbell's PGA Tour golf bag.

"Chad's commitment and self-determination are two core values that we also find in our franchise owners. We are proud to have Chad representing our company on the PGA TOUR." Said Jerry Crawford, President of Jani-King International.

Campbell's PGA Tour career highlights include 3 PGA Tour victories as well as 3 Nationwide victories. His PGA Tour victories include the 2003 TOUR Championship, the 2004 Bay Hill Invitational and the 2006 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic. Chad was also a member of the 2004 and 2006 Ryder Cup teams.

Links Sports currently manages the careers of more than 25 professional golfers, some of whom include Kenny Perry, Shaun Micheel, Corey Pavin, Loren Roberts, Ryan Palmer, Peter Lonard and Nathan Green. Links Sports is headquartered in Plano, Texas and was founded in 1992.

Jani-King has more than 11,700 authorized Franchise Owners worldwide. Through a network of more than 115 regional offices, Jani-King contracts commercial cleaning services, while the work is performed by Franchise Owners, who operate their own business. With over 37 years in business, Entrepreneur Magazine recognizes Jani-King as one of the top-10 franchise companies for 2006.
