PLANO, Texas (October 31, 2006) – Links Sports announced today the extension of Loren Roberts’ contract with Ernst & Young. Roberts has had a long standing partnership with Ernst & Young during his professional golf career. This multi year affiliation is one of the longest continuous corporate endorsement relationships that exist between a professional golfer and a financial services corporation.

"Ernst & Young has been proud to be associated with Loren Roberts for the last 13 years," said Tom Maurer, Partner at Ernst & Young. "Loren is a great representative of our firm in that he is not only the premier Champions Tour player but he is also an outstanding individual. The people of Ernst & Young have enjoyed and shared in his success and we very much look forward to continuing our relationship with him."

Loren’s career highlights include 8 PGA Tour victories and 5 Champions Tour victories, including 2 Champions Tour Majors. Loren was awarded the 2005 Champions Tour Rookie of the Year by Sports Illustrated and made golf history in 2006 when he became the first player to begin a Champions Tour season with three consecutive victories. Roberts was a member of the 1994 and 2000 President’s Cup teams, as well as the 1995 Ryder Cup team. He was also chosen to be an assistant captain of the 2006 Ryder Cup team.

Under the direction of President and Founder Dave Parker, Links Sports manages the careers of more than 25 professional golfers, some of whom include Chad Campbell, Kenny Perry, Shaun Micheel, Corey Pavin, Peter Lonard and Nathan Green. Links Sports is headquartered in Plano, Texas and was founded in 1992.

Ernst & Young employs over 107,000 people in 140 countries around the globe and pursue the highest levels of integrity, quality and professionalism to provide clients with a broad array of services relating to audit and risk-related services, tax, and transactions.
